

Keynotes

LEAP OF FAITH: WHEN GOD SEALS HIS INSTRUCTIONS ON YOUR HEART (JOB 33:14-16)

Whether you hear God speak in that still small voice, or He shouts in your ears, following through on what He's calling you to do can feel scary at times. How can we trust God will carry us through and equip us to do what He's asking of us? Spend time with Shay as she shares her own personal conversion story as walks with you to:

- Know when the message is of God and not of your own creation
- Seek assurance through God's word rather than what the world says
- Let go of your fear of what-ifs and step out in faith
- Release difficult experiences and appreciate the lessons learned

FILLING YOUR CHAIR: USING OUR GIFTS TO STEP INTO OUR CALLINGS (ROMANS 12)

We've all been given a chair. We're called to fill the chair, fully. Not to spill over into someone else's chair (pride), not to leave a ton of space on our chair (also pride), but to fill it fully by using our gifts on behalf of ourselves, and on the behalf of others to build the Kingdom. Walk with Shay through Romans 12 as we journey to uncover our personal giftings and learn to use them in pursuit of Jesus.

Retreat Topics

RAHAB: FROM CANAANITE PROSTITUTE TO JEWISH PRINCESS (JOSHUA 2)

Is a 'mustard seed of faith' really enough? Journey with Shay to see how hearing two simple stories of God's providence opened one woman's heart to the Spirit and Truth and how it changed her identity and the lives of those she loved, and how her belief impacted the lineage of Jesus Christ.

KNOWING YOUR WORTH: TRADE THE EXHAUSTION OF A NEVER-ENDING TO-DO LIST FOR THE REST OF WORTHINESS (JOHN 4)

Do you feel exhausted before you even start your day? Do you feel like you've failed if you haven't crossed off your endless to-do list as the sun sets? Do you think to yourself, "I could have, I should have?" when thinking of what's left undone? We spend our days drinking from a fire hose but never slowing the water down enough to get a sufficient drink. When we look to ourselves, or the world around us, to fill empty spaces in our heart, we will always feel spent. Come find rest with the Woman at the Well as we learn what it is to drink from living waters and never thirst again.

Shay Brackney

Speaker | Author | Christian Life Coach

www.shaybrackney.com

303-521-2615